To Whom it may Concern

Conflict Materials

MacLellan Rubber as a supplier of primarily Polymer based products does not consider itself at risk of trading in or supplying products containing Conflict Minerals and/or Metals sourced in the Eastern Democratic Republic of Congo and/or other conflict areas.

MacLellan Rubber abides by the UK guidance on Conflict Materials and actively seeks assurances from its supply chain that all raw materials are sourced in a way that is socially, economically and environmentally responsible

For and on behalf of MacLellan Rubber Ltd.
